Each member of the Committee must be "independent" as defined by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the listing requirements of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (the "NASDAQ"). Each member of the Committee must meet the experience requirements of the NASDAQ, including that each member must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement, must not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company or any current subsidiary of the Company at any time during the past three years and at least one member of the Committee members may not simultaneously serve on the Audit Committees of more than two other public companies unless the Board determines in advance that such simultaneous service does not impair the member's ability to effectively serve on the Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements and subject to applicable law, no action of the Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its Chair will be selected annually by the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating & Governance Committee, and will serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chair is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee has the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter, including, but not limited to, complaints relating to accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.

2. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any independent registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; (b) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (c) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

3. Delegate to its Chair, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances and consistent with applicable law. However, unless otherwise determined by the Board, subcommittees do not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel, accounting experts or other advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. Each subcommittee will keep minutes and regularly report to the Committee.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee's responsibilities are limited to oversight.

Interaction with the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

1. Appointment and Oversight. 3. Independence of Registered Public Accounting Firm. The Committee will, at least annually, review the independence and quality control procedures of the independent registered public accounting firm and the experience and qualifications of the independent registered public accounting firm's senior personnel that are providing audit services to the Company. In conducting its review, the Committee will:

    a) Obtain and review a report prepared by the independent registered public accounting firm describing (i) the firm's internal quality-control procedures and (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or

b) Discuss with representatives of the independent registered public accounting firm its independence from the Company, and obtain and review a written statement prepared by the independent registered public accounting firm describing all relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and the Company, consistent with applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB") regarding the independent registered public accounting firm's communications with the audit committee concerning independence, and consider the impact that any relationships, including any relationships between the independent registered public accounting firm and members of the Company's management, or services may have on the objectivity and independence of the independent registered public accounting firm.

c) If applicable, consider whether the provision by the independent registered public accounting firm of any permitted information technology services or other non-audit services to the Company is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm.

d) Confirm with the independent registered public accounting firm that the firm is in compliance with the partner rotation requirements established by the SEC.
